

The image shows the front cover of a book bound in dark brown leather. The cover features a central rectangular panel with a gold-tooled border. The word "ATHÈNES" is printed in large, gold, serif capital letters in the center of this panel. In the four corners of the panel, there are decorative motifs consisting of a square Greek key pattern with a leafy branch extending from it. Below the main title, the publisher's name "EDITION PALLIS & COTZIAS" is printed in smaller, gold, serif capital letters. The leather has a fine, pebbled texture, and the overall design is classic and elegant.
